The Democratic Banner

EDITED BY L. HARPER.

"HE IS A FREEMAN WHOM THE TRUTH MAKES FREE."

MOUNT VERNON, OHIO.

NOV. 23, 1867.

OUR OWN AFFAIRS.

Last week we announced to our Democratic friends our intention to enlarge and improve the BANNER, provided our subscribers who are in arrears, would respond to the call, and furnish us with the "material aid" necessary to make the desired improvements. We are now happy to announce that the response to this call has fully met our expectations. Although most of our subscribers are farmers, some of whom reside considerable distance from the County Seat, and who seldom come to town unless on particular business; still, the number who have called and settled their accounts, have been considerable; and from the spirit they manifest, we feel assured that there will be a general response from our subscribers, as soon as they have an opportunity to visit Mt. Vernon.

About the first man who called upon us was that glorious old Democrat, Daniel Campbell, of Union township. "How much do I owe you?" he asked. Upon referring to our books, we replied that $7.50 will pay up until the first of September, 1868. Apologizing for allowing himself to get so much in arrears, he handed us a $10 piece of the late lamented, and said, "here, credit me with that," which paid in advance until September, 1869. Soon afterwards we met on the street that big bodied and big souled Democrat, William Dunham, of Wayne township. "Here, Harper, wait a minute, I wish to speak to you," he said. "I see you intend to improve the BANNER, and want money with which to do it. I don't know how much I owe you, and haven't time to go to the office; but here is $5.00, credit me with that, and if you want ten more I'll give it to you."

We mention the above incidents to show the spirit that animates our Democratic friends. We feel greatly encouraged, and we confidently believe that there will be such a general and generous response from our subscribers, that will promise a new and improved paper at an early day.

The following is the "LEGION OF HONOR" for the last week. We hope it will be still larger next week and every succeeding week:

Hon. Columbus Delano will leave for Washington to-morrow, Wednesday, to conduct the election of General Morgan. The testimony of all on file, and we suppose is printed, and we trust the committee on elections will consider it at an early day. The House needs the experience and ability of Mr. Delano, and if he has a clear case, as we think he has, he should have his seat at once.—Mt. Vernon Republican.

The impudence of some men passes all understanding. The idea of Columbus Delano, who was fairly beaten by nearly 300 votes, contesting the election, is the most ridiculous thing that can be imagined. Illegal votes were undoubtedly cast, but the investigation clearly proves that they were cast for Delano. Gen. Morgan's majority instead of being reduced, will be greatly increased, in a fair count. This Fall, the District gave a majority of 2178 for Judge Thurman, the Democratic candidate for Governor, and it was much larger on some other candidates. In a fair election to-day, General Morgan would beat the "pork and beans hero" 2500 votes.—Delano knows this, and his friends also know it. But he is too fond of office, or rather the money he can make by being in Congress, outside of his salary, to retire, after he has been fairly and squarely beaten. Delano, in his heart, worships but one god, and that is money. He is worth a quarter of a million of dollars, and he certainly never made the one-tenth of it by his profession. It is generally believed that he made at least one hundred thousand dollars during his last term in Congress. This is why he is so anxious to cheat General Morgan out of his seat, and get back to Congress again. Avarice, thy name is Delano!

Democratic Gains this Year.
Summing up the Democratic gains in the Northern States this year, we have the following astonishing and pleasing figures:
New York.....61,000
New Jersey.....15,000
California.....30,000
Ohio.....2,000
Pennsylvania.....18,000
Indiana.....25,000
Maine.....15,000
Connecticut.....2,000
Massachusetts.....45,000
New Hampshire.....3,000
Wisconsin.....21,000
Kansas.....10,000
Iowa.....8,000
Minnesota.....6,000
Total.....299,000

Here is a Democratic gain of nearly 300,000 in fourteen States. If we were to include Maryland, Kentucky and West Virginia many thousands would have to be added; but the above will do.

Charles Dickens, ("Boz"), the celebrated English novelist and lecturer, arrived in Boston, on Monday, where he met with a grand reception from the modern Athenians. He is about to commence a lecturing tour in the United States.

General Grant Declares that this is a "White Man's Government."

"Mack," in a late letter to the Cincinnati Commercial, from Washington, gives a report of some remarks made by Colonel Hillyer, formerly of Gen. Grant's staff, of Mr. Eldridge, of Wisconsin, a member of the Impeachment Committee. Addressing himself to Mr. Eldridge, he said he supposed it wouldn't be necessary for him to revise the report of his testimony. "No," Eldridge said, "that would be all right." "Well," said Hillyer, "there's one thing you might have got out of me if you came might near doing it when you were examining me about Grant." "What's that?" said Eldridge. "Why," replied Hillyer, "I heard a conversation between General Grant and the President some time ago—the only time I ever heard them talk politics. Grant seemed to be very earnest about it, and bringing his hand down heavily on the table, said he (Grant): 'Mr. President, demagogues may talk as they please, but this is a white man's government, and none but white men should have a voice in it.'"

"Mack" adds: Now, the above is no figment of a Copperhead imagination. It is precisely what was related to me yesterday by Mr. Eldridge, with permission to print it, just after the conversation between him and Colonel Hillyer.

The Presidency.
The New York Herald, in speaking of the movement of the Negro Equality Radicals to run Gen. Grant for President, to save their party from destruction, says:

"If General Grant accepts the Radical nomination upon such a platform as the Radicals now tread, he will be defeated, despite his national popularity, and his masterly reticence. General Scott was defeated where there were similar but minor principles involved."

The Herald declares that with good management on the part of Democrats they may carry next year every Northern State except, perhaps, Massachusetts and Vermont.

Yes, the Democrats are determined to have "good management" in conducting the Presidential campaign. They will nominate that gallant and glorious Democrat, patriot and statesman, GEORGE H. PENDLETON, and will elect him, as Franklin Pierce was elected in 1852, almost by acclamation.

Weston, the Walkist.
Weston, the pedestrian, arrived at Cleveland, on Monday night, on his journey from Portland, Maine, to Chicago, Ill., a distance of 1237 miles, which he has undertaken to make in twenty-six secular days—thirty in all—on a wage of $10,000. Thus far he is a head of time. He undertook, between Erie, Pa., and Conneaut, Ohio, to walk 100 miles in one day, but after making 91 miles in 21 hours, he was persuaded to give it up, owing to his feet becoming very much swollen and blistered, and fearing that it might jeopardize the final result.

Weston is accompanied by a party of gentlemen on horseback and in carriages, who wish to see "fair play" all round. The road, along which he passes, is constantly crowded with people, who are anxious to see the walkist, and cheer him on his way. He sleeps very little, and generally starts about midnight on his travels. He eats heartily, is quite cheerful, and has gained two pounds in weight since he left Portland. He is quite confident of being able to accomplish the journey within the time specified in the agreement.

Horrible Murder and Suicide.
A man named James H. Gregory, proprietor of a photograph gallery in Cleveland, on Friday last shot a young lady named Isabella Roy, who was employed in the gallery, and then cut his own throat. Not coming home at the usual time, his wife, with one of her children, went to the gallery, and there found Gregory lying dead upon the floor, and large pools of blood at different places in the room. Officers were called in, who, upon searching the premises found Miss Roy lying dead on the floor in a dark room used for chemical purposes, covered with a shawl, a large revolver near by. From a number of pistol shots on the wall, it is believed that Gregory must have fired several shots before he killed his lady.—It is supposed that jealousy and family difficulties induced Gregory to commit these horrible crimes.

The evidence taken before the Coroner's Jury shows that Gregory tried to induce Miss Roy to leave the city and run away with him, and also endeavored to prevent her marriage with a gentleman named West, to whom she was engaged. There is no doubt that Gregory was criminally intimate with the girl and was fearful of an exposure, which may have been the motive in committing this horrible crime.

The Election in Minnesota.
The St. Paul Pioneer (Dem.) of Saturday last contains returns from thirty-two counties in Minnesota comprising two-thirds of the vote of the State, which show a Republican majority of 2,341, and from these figures estimates that the total Republican majority on the vote for Governor will be less than 4,000. In these thirty-two counties the Democratic gain is 5,844, and the Republican 510—a net gain of 5,334 for the Democrats. It is again a one more such victory, and where will Radicalism in Minnesota land? The result of the vote on negro suffrage is in doubt. The St. Paul Press (Rep.) figures up that the Democrats have gained two members of the State Senate and four in the House, as compared with the last Legislature.

Kansas Election.
The official majority of twenty-one counties and reported majorities of six others, most populous in the State give negro suffrage 5,095 against 13,563; female suffrage, 5,043 against 13,498; disfranchising disloyal persons, 9,253 against 8,603. The representative districts return 50 Republicans and 21 Democrats, with fourteen districts yet to hear from, ten of which will return in favor of the Republicans. The Senate will stand Republicans, 20; Democrats, 5; and the House will probably stand Republican, 60; Democrats, 25.

Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.
It is understood that Jim Ashley intends proposing another Amendment to the Constitution, inserting the word Negro before the word Millitia in Article II of the Amendment to that instrument, so that it will then read: "A well regulated Negro Militia being necessary to the security of a Free State, the rights of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed."

The Republican Senators at Washington, have become disgusted with John W. Forney, Secretary of the Senate, and are looking around to find a suitable person to fill his place. Forney's effort to have Grant nominated for President and himself for Vice President, is anything but pleasing to Radical Senators.

The New Hampshire Democracy.

The Democratic Convention, which assembled at Concord, N. H., on the 14th, nominated J. G. Sinclair for Governor. There were over six thousand delegates present.

The resolutions declare that "fidelity to the Union, and to the Constitution by which that Union was created, is the paramount and indispensable duty of every citizen;" that the Congressional plan of reconstruction is a "revolutionary usurpation," and the "attempt to establish the practical supremacy of the negro race is a most atrocious crime against the principles of republican government and the civilization of the age;" that the Democracy "are in favor of equal taxation of all the property of the State and nation, so far as that result can be attained without a violation of the national faith, and with a scrupulous regard to the Constitution;" and that "rigid summary laws be enacted and abridged the liberty which belongs to the American citizens."

Sad Death.
We are sorry to hear of the death of Lieut. James Pike, son of Col. Sam. Pike, editor of the Hillsboro' Gazette, which occurred at Camp Logan, Oregon, early in September, where he was in the service of his country fighting the Indians. In breaking a gun on a rock, to render it useless, which he took from one of a band of thieving red skins, it discharged, the ball entering the left thigh, below the hip.—He lived but a few days. Lieut. Pike was a brave and dashing officer, and was greatly beloved by all who enjoyed the pleasure of his acquaintance.

Forney for Vice President.
Telegrams to the Cincinnati Commercial from Washington, announce the important fact that John W. Forney is anxious to be the candidate for Vice President on the ticket with Gen. Grant. He gives positive assurance "that he and Grant would sweep Pennsylvania by 5000 majority." The Statesman thinks that Forney has vice enough as an individual without adding to them Vice President.

The Negro Suffrage Vote.
Of the eighty-eight counties in Ohio, but twenty-seven voted for the Constitutional Amendment giving negroes the right of suffrage, while sixty counties voted against it.—Old, benighted Astabula gave the largest majority, 3,135, and Carroll the smallest 47, for the amendment. Hamilton county gave the largest majority, 6,160, and Erie the smallest majority, 31, against the amendment.

Gen. Grant Want's to be "Let Alone."
General Grant was told the other day by Colonel Morris, of Galveston, Texas, that his people wanted to run him for President, and asked him what he should say to them? He replied, "Nothing." Another gentleman, an intimate friend of the General, likewise had an interview, and in reply to the remark that both parties seemed determined to run him, the General said: "I have everything I wish—I want nothing but to be let alone."

Two Kinds of Money for Two Kinds of Men.
The New York Herald pointedly remarks that this is the financial plank in the radical platform—"two kinds of money for two kinds of men." National bank rage for the people and national gold coin for the rich bondholders. Who goes for the party that is for making the rich richer and the poor poorer.

The columns of the Cleveland Herald are enriched with lively and gossiping correspondence from the Old World. First, we have "J. R. R." (Prof. Rhodes), who is now in Vienna, Austria. Next, we have "Myra," understood to be Mrs. Fairbanks, the accomplished wife of the Senior proprietor of the Herald, who is now "doing" the Bosphorus and dreaming in the Mosques of Constantinople. Then, again, we have graphic letters from "H. S. S.", the initials of our old friend H. S. Stevens, who writes all about the banks and braes of Bonnie Scotland, from St. Petersburg. We read the Herald's Foreign Correspondence with a great deal of pleasure.

The Republicans of Pittsburgh have nominated John W. Riddell, a young lawyer, as their candidate for Mayor, in place of the present incumbent, Wm. C. McCarthy, who was nominated for City Treasurer. Mr. McCarthy ran our Steam Press when we edited the Daily Post, and he and Riddell were then "bully Democrats." But Radicalism pays better than Democracy in Pittsburgh, and we suppose our old friends wished to be on the winning side.

The New York Day Book remarks of Mrs. Allen G. Thurman: "No living woman so nearly resembles Martha Washington as Mrs. Thurman, whose modest worth was made the subject of attack for excelling in the Christian beatitudes, in the treatment of prisoners during the late war. Allen G. Thurman is the property of Ohio no longer. Henceforth he is the property of the country."

The Akron Beacon states that "Captain John A. Means," one of the spies sent by the "Fredericksburg butcher" to Mt. Vernon, in May, 1863, to report Mr. Vallandigham's speech, is a citizen of Summit county, and that he glories in the shameful and disgraceful part he performed on that memorable occasion.

Generals Sickles, Steedman, Blair, Slocum and others, have been formally "mustered out of service, in accordance with the law, which provides for the disbandment of the forces at the end of the war. Thirty Major Generals retire, altogether.

The Democracy of Springfield, Ohio, had a grand jollification on Tuesday, in honor of our late triumph over the disunion Radicals. Hon. C. L. Vallandigham and others made speeches.

General Carey, M. C. from the second District, was serenaded in Washington on Tuesday night, by the Trade's Union, and in response he made a telling speech, advocating the payment of the public debt with greenbacks.

The Republican Senators at Washington, have become disgusted with John W. Forney, Secretary of the Senate, and are looking around to find a suitable person to fill his place. Forney's effort to have Grant nominated for President and himself for Vice President, is anything but pleasing to Radical Senators.

POLITICAL.

The Hocking Sentinel nominates Judge Van Trump, of the Fairfield District, for President in 1868.

Chase's friends threaten to turn out Forney from his office of Secretary of the Senate for alleged treachery in going over to Grant.

An Ohio Democrat came home all the way from Chili, South America, to vote the straight ticket. He is rewarded.

A Democratic paper in Washington nominates General Sherman for President, with J. P. Stockton, of New Jersey, for Vice.

Returns from the Third Congressional District of Missouri indicate that Gen. McCormick, Democrat, has been elected to the seat made vacant by the death of Thomas E. Noel.

The Greensburg Republican hoists the name of Col. Dan Rice for President, and instances that Westmorland county was the first to nominate Andrew Jackson and James Buchanan.

The majority in New York State is creeping up toward fifty thousand, yet the Tribune thinks it wasn't much of a shower after all. The Negro Suffrage proposition voted on at the recent election in Minnesota, is certainly defeated by about 1,000 majority.

Some of the Philadelphia Democrats are urging the nomination of Robert C. Winthrop, of Massachusetts, for President, and Senator Doolittle, of Wisconsin, for Vice President.

Mr. Pendleton, it is now authoritatively announced, will not under any circumstances be a candidate for Senator.

A correspondent of the Day Book says: "It is no disparagement to any to say that Mr. Thurman is the equal of any lawyer in either Europe or America."

Gen. Grant will not be drawn out. He says he has no politics, and does not take any interest in the hurrah movement. The Republican club of his ward tabled a resolution to nominate him for the Presidency, on Tuesday evening.

A mongrel paper says "the rooster has suddenly become the emblem of Democracy."

Yes, sir—the regular game cock, while a sick turkey buzzard has just as suddenly become the emblem of Mongrelism.

A radical sheet says the party has lost everything but its honesty in the late elections.—That was lost years ago.

The negroes have carried South Carolina by 34,000, the whites not being allowed to vote. Another magnificent radical victory!

George H. Pendleton for President, and John Quincy Adams for Vice President, is a ticket much talked of by the Democrats, and Horatio Seymour for President, and Thomas A. Hendricks, of Ia., for Vice, are also suggested.

Norristown (Pa.) Register hoists the names of Thomas H. Seymour, of Connecticut, and Richard H. Stanton, of Kentucky, as its choice for the Democratic candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency in 1868.

An exchange says truly, that no man of Mr. Pendleton's ability has filled the Presidential chair since the time of Mr. Polk. Some Southern, Western and New England Democratic and Conservative politicians now in Washington, advocating the nomination of General James B. Steedman, of Ohio, for President, and John Quincy Adams, of Massachusetts, for Vice President.

The Nashville Gazette has this ticket at the head of its leading column. For President, Geo. H. Pendleton, of Ohio; for Vice President, John Quincy Adams, of Massachusetts. The platform of the Gazette is terse. It is:

"Local self-government!
"A white man's country!
"One kind of money, or rich and poor alike!"

Mr. Spinner on the Finances.
Hon. F. E. Spinner, United States Treasurer, whose curious and emphatic signature appears on all the greenbacks, writes a brief letter in response to a friend, in which he says:

"I have not the patience to read anything advocating the sneaking expedient of paying the national debt in depreciated currency. The Secretary of the Treasury is sound on that subject, and in his forthcoming annual report will address an argument to Congress and the country. I shall surely will please you and those who are neither knaves or fools." Mr. Spinner will soon be taught that there are a great many "knaves" and "fools" in the country.

Who is Sacred?
The New York Tribune, in its notice of the attempt to nominate Grant, says: "We object to the Grant movement that it is of the nature of the ostrich's simple strategy, that deceives only himself."

We commend this extract to the kind attention of the Dayton Journal, whose editor says the Democracy opposes the nomination of Grant, because they fear him. We think the fear is on the other side.—Statesman.

The Insurrection in Hayti.
The news of the insurrection in Hayti is confirmed. On the 12th of October, the scene in the Legislative Chambers was very violent, and the language used of the most threatening character. It all arose from a motion made to relieve Montez, who is in a Cape Haytian dungeon. The members all spoke in his defense.

It is stated that President Salnave became so incensed as to secretly incite a rabble of women and boys to attack the House of Assembly. This they did amid loud voices for Salnave and cries of "Down with the Assembly," hurling at the same time bricks, bottles, sticks, &c. The dwellings of many were stoned. The American Consul was fired at but escaped unhurt. A unanimous protest of the diplomatic corps has been presented against such scenes, and demanding of the government to see to it that the like does not occur again.

Chase Castigates Hunnicut.
It is stated that Hunnicut had an interview with Judge Chase, at Richmond, Va., on Friday last, and received a severe castigation from him for his extreme Radical utterances. He was told he misrepresented the party and brought it into discredit in the States. The causing between Judge Chase and those of his party who support his claims for the Presidential nomination in this State was continued to-day. Extreme reticence marked their counsel.

The negroes present on the occasion, Jacob Johnson and Jacob Jones were identified, and others, and warrants for whose arrest were issued, and will be at once executed.

The negroes under arrest are the lowest and most ignorant of their class, and are just creatures as can be relied on to do the murder. One of the negroes, who was among the crowd, which the teachings of the negroes in our midst have prepared them for, and are urging them to. These diabolical men, with white skins but black hearts, will yet be caught, and then for them a grave vine and the nearest tree.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

General Sherman expects the Indian Commissioners will complete their labors for the present, and that he will be in Washington about the last of December.

Chief Justice Chase will be in Richmond, with Judge Woodward, on Monday. Jeff. Davis and his counsel will also be there on that day, ready for trial.

The Secretary of State has applied to the British Government for clemency to O'Brien and McCondon, the Fenians under sentence of death in Manchester.

It is ascertained from official sources that Jeff Davis will be tried on the indictment now pending.

A man in Havana recently attempted to elope with three women on the same evening. The enterprise was too complicated, and he ignominiously failed.

The Herald's special says: Gen. Sherman is coming to Washington, it is said, to perform the duties of General-in-Chief during Grant's Secretaryship.

Stevens is determined to introduce a bill to suspend civil officers while under trial for impeachment, quoting Constitutional authority for it.

The New York Tribune says that $500,000 in election bribes have been paid over in New York. Congressman Morrissey gets about $15,000.

The official returns of the Bank of England show a decrease in bullion, since the 7th inst., of £940,000.

Mr. James T. Brady, the eminent New York lawyer, it is said, will volunteer for the Presidential duty, on account of the expulsion of Mr. Bradley from the bar.

The cost of registration in Virginia was $239,000. The cost of the military establishment in the State for the last ten months was $5,000,000. All for the glory of the nigger.

Greeley thinks that "the days of the Democracy are numbered." So are the sands on the sea shore, the leaves in the forest, and the stars in the sky.—Louisville Journal.

Robert H. Pomeroy, late cashier of the Mohawk Valley National Bank, Utica, N. Y., committed suicide on the 16th. The act is said to have been committed on account of alleged delinquencies from the bank.

The Boston Journal takes a rosy view of Republican prospects next fall, while the prospect admits that a loss of six per centum will send their party up the saline stream.

The President that ordered Gen. Sickles to be state's attorney, and Major General of volunteers. He will fall back on his commission as Colonel in the regular army.

It is reported that seventy families living in Johnstown, Pa., are about to migrate to Kentucky in a body. They have secured 28,000 acres of land on the Licking River, about fifty miles from Cincinnati, paying therefor fifty cents per acre.

Tennessee farmers are becoming disgusted with cotton raising, and many more thousands of acres of wheat will be raised during the coming year than was harvested the present.

Quiller, a negro murderer, was executed at Elizabeth, New Jersey, on Thursday. In his speech on the scaffold he said that his crime and his penalty were the results of strong drink. He died hard.

There are tin mines in Missouri, and an Englishman writes to the London Mining Journal that a new Cornwall is likely to spring up. The ore yields from 3 to 15 per cent of tin.

A child, born in Coburg, N. Y., weighing one pound, now in its third month only weighs two and a half pounds. A gentleman's fingering will pass over its arm to the elbow, and its shoes are only two inches long.

Two brutes were arrested in Chicago on Monday for whipping their wives. We have the authority of the Chicago Republican for the statement that wife whipping is becoming "alarmingly prevalent" in that city.

The Springfield (Mass.) Republican says it is unofficially but reliably reported that the State Constables in Hampden county have received orders from headquarters to suspend operations entirely so far as the liquor law is concerned.

The Montreal News raises a piteous cry for protection against Yankee invasion. Armed men cross the border from the States and carry death and destruction among the Canadian dairy.

Result of Radical Teachings.

Anticipated Negro Insurrection—Stating Information—A Devilish Plot Disclosed.

We clip the following article from the Lynchburg News. It discloses one of the most diabolical schemes as yet concocted since the Southampton insurrection:

We are no sensationists, but we cannot shut our eyes to the alarming fact that the negroes mean mischief. On Saturday a negro of conservative principles, named Bernard Brooks, lodged complaint with Justice Bruce, a magistrate of Campbell county, that Jacob Jones and Jacob Johnson, two negro Radicals, living in the county near McAllister's Shop, were preparing to kill him, and asked for a warrant for their arrest. The warrant was issued and placed in the hands of Constable George M. Brooks, and the accused were arrested and brought to this city, where they were examined before Justices D. P. Reese, James M. Langhorn and George M. Bruce, which resulted in the prisoners being committed to jail for further hearing on Friday next.

Among the witnesses examined was Mrs. Dr. McAllister, who stated that negroes to the number of fifty or more, had been holding secret meetings on her husband's plantation, seven miles below the city, on the Richmond road, and that she finally had her suspicions aroused to such a pitch that she determined to see what was going on. Friday night she went to her house where a meeting was being held, and upon nearing found a dog tied, as she supposed, to give the alarm should any one approach. Returning to her own house near by, she provided herself with bread to give the dog to keep him quiet, succeeded in her plan, and finally reached the cabin undiscovered.—There she heard the negroes discussing the mode by which different white people in the neighborhood were to be killed, amongst whom was her husband, who was to be shot. Other whites were pronounced too mean to be granted so respectable a death, and a grape-vine halter was decreed them.

The negro mentioned above, Bernard Brooks, was included in the list of those who were to be killed, his offense being his conservatism, and short work was to be made of him with a grape vine. Further developments of the plans of these blood thirsty villains were made, and the lady became completely satisfied from what she heard, they were preparing to carry them into speedy execution.

Among the negroes present on the occasion, Jacob Johnson and Jacob Jones were identified, and others, and warrants for whose arrest were issued, and will be at once executed.

The negroes under arrest are the lowest and most ignorant of their class, and are just creatures as can be relied on to do the murder. One of the negroes, who was among the crowd, which the teachings of the negroes in our midst have prepared them for, and are urging them to. These diabolical men, with white skins but black hearts, will yet be caught, and then for them a grave vine and the nearest tree.

A Girl Pursues her Father's Assassin and is Fatally Wounded by Him.

CAIRO, Nov. 12.—An old family quarrel, with a woman in the case, culminated terribly yesterday, at Blandville, Ky. A. J. Warden, County Clerk, considering himself deeply wronged by O. D. Campbell, formerly Sheriff, threatened to kill Campbell on sight. Campbell heard of the threats, business compelled him to come to town. Warden advanced, Campbell retreated, warning Warden not to follow. After retreating ten or twelve paces, Campbell shot Warden in the mouth, at sixty yards with a pistol. The ball lodged in the back of the neck, and was taken out. Warden may recover. After Warden's fall, his daughter, aged eighteen, took her father's pistol and rushed at Campbell, who ran, begging her to let him alone. After running fifty yards, Campbell turned, shot a piece out of her ear, and continued running. She then shot and missed. Campbell again turned, and shot her in the lower arm. She is still living, with no hopes of recovery. Campbell is in jail.—Cin. Com.

The Pope's Address to the French Officers.

PARIS, November 14.—Previous to the departure of the French troops from Rome, the Holy Father received the staff officers in a body at the audience chamber of the Vatican, and addressed them in the most pleasing manner. He expressed his happiness at having the soldiers of France around him once more; but never had his happiness been so great as it was now, because of the recent peril to which he had been exposed. He returned thanks to the officers for the delivery of the Holy See. He was filled with grief to see that Italy had sent out as a vanguard against Rome a horde of anarchists, upon whose flags were inscribed Rapine and Devastation. While the valor of the Pontifical troops had successfully defended the soil of the Church, the army of France had come to protect the papal residence. The Pope concluded by saying that, in the midst of his trouble he had the consolation of receiving sincere expressions of Catholic sympathy from all parts of the world. His Holiness then terminated the interview by giving his apostolic blessing to the Army, the People, and the Emperor of France.

Discovery of Gold in Mercer County, Pennsylvania.

The workmen employed by Colonel James Hemphill, in sinking a shaft for ore or coal, struck a vein of rock, strongly intermixed with a substance at first supposed to be sulphur. Upon the examination of the rock by Mr. Hemphill and his superintending Mr. Mills, and after several tests, they pronounced it to be gold of a superior quality, and capable of yielding five thousand dollars to the ton. The rock is about the same as that in which the Green County gold is said to have been found, and lies about one hundred feet below the coal level in this basin.

Fears of Another Outbreak in Jamaica.

NEW YORK, November 13.—The Herald's Kingston, Jamaica, special of the 15th, says: There is fear of another riotous and revolutionary outbreak. The parish of St. Thomas in the east, is threatened, on the present occasion, as in the case of the former rebellion, there are as many as 400 negroes disciplined according to military practice, and ready to take up arms. The Protestant Vicar of St. David parish have been already admonished by the leaders of the colored force. A great panic exists all over the island. In consequence of the government and Executive officers are on the alert. The white population is seriously menaced.

Prayers.

The Day Book says: "The Sunday before election in Massachusetts, all the ministers in the State prayed for the success of entire prohibition. Behold the results of these prayers!—prohibition was badly beaten, and the Democrats gained 40,000 votes in the State. If the radicals had prayed two Sundays instead of one, we should probably have swept the State."

Schofield, Satrap of Virginia, by the grace of the Abolition caucus, has "ordered" that the Virginia Legislature need not meet this winter, as it would be unnecessary while such a gigantic intellect as he controlled the destinies of the old commonwealth. The hybrid convention of low whites and niggers, led by Hunnicut and manoeuvred by Schofield, will be sufficient to manage Virginia affairs, and steal all that is left of her rights, or property and her liberty. This is the substance of a recent correspondence, by the satrap, while it shows the insolence and manhood of a Congressional satrap, it demonstrates the utter failure of the Abolition scheme to govern the South through the niggers. The blacks are a ridiculous failure as an element of enlightened government,—the attempt to bestow upon them the power to control affairs has resulted in nothing but dish

Brevities.
—Mr. Samuel Rinehart, of this township, has our thanks for the present of a basket of the finest apples we have tasted this year.

—The "beggars have come to town," in earnest. The "lame, the halt and the blind" are here. Some of them are no doubt objects of charity, but it will do no harm to keep your doors locked.

—Congress met on Thursday of this week, pursuant to adjournment.

—The Delaware Herald has passed into the hands of E. F. Poppleton, Esq., who is making a live Democratic paper out of it.

—Down at Zanesville they are making an effort to complete the Railroad from that city to Cleveland, by supplying the link to Millersburg.

—Horace Greeley says foolish things sometimes, but here is something that has wisdom in it: "The man who pays more for his shop rent, than his advertising, don't know his business."

—The adjourned session of the Court of Common Pleas will commence on Tuesday, December 3d.

We notice by chalk-writing on the steps that nearly all the Dry Goods merchants advertise "Fresh Oysters." We suspect this is the work of some mischievous larks, who keep late hours at night!

—Mark your California letters "via steamer," unless you desire to have them go across the plains and be "gobbled" by the Indians.

—The steers of the new Congregational Church is going up in fine style. It already makes people heavenly minded to look up to its top!

—We have had most lovely fall weather thus far, and our farmers have taken advantage of it by getting their corn husked and other work done, incident to this season of the year.

—See advertisement of Mr. J. Tudor, in another part of this paper. This gentleman keeps a tip top family Grocery store, at John Irvine's old stand, corner of High street and the Public Square. Give him a call.

Cowhiding Affair.
The South-western corner of the Public Square, adjoining the Post Office, was the scene of intense excitement on Friday morning last, occasioned by a cowhiding affair, in which Mrs. Chris. Weaver was the whipper and Mr. Emil Niepraschk, who keeps a small Confectionery and Ice Cream Saloon, was the whipped.

As various rumors are afloat in regard to the origin of this breach of the peace, we consider it but proper to give the facts, so far as we have been able to learn them.

It seems that Mr. Niepraschk, a few weeks ago, lost one of his chairs, which some of the youngsters of the town, out of pure mischief, carried away. Mr. N., for some reason or other, got it into his head that the chair was taken by Mrs. Weaver, and he different times requested her to return it—she always replying that she didn't know anything about his chair.

At length things become a little serious, and on Tuesday Mr. Niepraschk addressed a note to Mr. Weaver, accusing his wife of having stolen the chair, stating that he could bring witnesses to prove it, and threatening to "disgrace" him and her if the chair was not returned the next day.

This brought matters to a focus. Mrs. Weaver's Irish blood at once went up to the boiling point. To be accused of stealing, and that a contemptible ten shilling chair, was more than she could stand. Believing, from all that could be learned in regard to his pecuniary affairs, that nothing could be made of Niepraschk, in a suit for slander, Mrs. Weaver determined to "take it out of his hide."

She accordingly procured a good stout cowhide, and waited her opportunity to find the person who had so grossly slandered her. It was not until Friday morning, at the place above mentioned, that she came across Niepraschk.

Approaching him, Mrs. Weaver demanded that he should retract his slander or take the consequences. He declined to make any retraction, whereupon Mrs. W. gave him a most unmerciful whipping, which, however, he did not take without making all the resistance in his power. As might be expected Mrs. Weaver was bound over for her appearance at Court, to answer a charge of assault and battery.

And we hear that Mr. Niepraschk will be sued for slander. So the lawyers will not die for want of business, after all.

A Great Corn Year.
From every part of the county we have favorable reports in regard to the great abundance and excellent quality of the corn crop this year. The ears are large and the grain uncommonly sound. Our farmers are bragging a good deal over their big ears of corn, but so far as we have heard we think Mr. Samuel Rinehart, of this township, takes the premium. He brought to town the other day two ears which grew upon one stalk, which were shelled in our presence, and counted 1678 grains. The weight of the shelled corn was 1 lb. 10 oz., and the whole stalk but a few grains of making an even quart. If any of our farmers can beat this, let them "show the documents."

Accident to John Harrod.

Our old friend John Harrod, of Clay township, was badly injured on Friday last, while bringing a load of wood to town. It appears that while in the act of driving his horses into the bridge at the foot of Main street, they became frightened at some cattle that were passing through the bridge, and commenced backing in such a rapid manner that Mr. Harrod could not control them. The wagon was backed over the embankment, and upset, throwing Mr. H. out and the load of wood on the top of him. Persons passing at the time rescued Mr. H. from his perilous situation. He was taken up, in an insensible condition, and carried to the Lybrand House, and Dr. Russell sent for, who, after making an examination, reported that the injuries sustained were not of a serious character. Mr. H. remained at the Lybrand House for a few days, until he was in a condition to be removed to his home. He is now doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

The Lady's Friend, for December.

This is a Holiday number—and a magnificent one. The Steel Engraving called "THE HAPPIEST TIME," is a beautiful and charming design, and executed in beautiful style. The Steel Plate, "THE IMMORTAL CROWN," also expressly engraved for this magazine, will touch a solemn but joyful chord in every heart. Then we have a handsomely Colored Engraving of a "Jewel-Case and Pin-Cushion," and after this the usual refined and elegant Double-Face Fashion Plate, finely engraved on Steel; not a mere lithograph or wood engraving. Then follows a number of Wood Engravings illustrative of the Fashions, Needle Work, &c., with the usual piece of Music, word of itself the cost of the book. The Literary Matter is as choice as usual.

Great inducements in the way of Premiums, &c., are promised to new subscribers. Sample copies will be sent for fifteen cents.

Price (with engraving) $2.50 a year; four copies (with engraving) $6.00. One copy of Lady's Friend and one of Saturday Evening Post (and one engraving), $4.00. Address Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut Street, Philadelphia.

Will the publishers be kind enough to send us the November number?

"Demorest."

The Christmas number of this unrivaled magazine is received, and is really a gem. Its engravings and stories are excellent, its "Christmas Dinner," which is illustrated, looks good enough to eat, and is accompanied with proper receipts for cooking it.

We notice several additions in this number of interest to ladies. One of which is the enlargement of the already complete Fashion Department, and of large page illustrations of bonnets, cloaks, and children's costumes.

The pattern sheet is a very valuable one, being printed on both sides. A feature of the fashions is originality, and, therefore, of special value to American ladies, who want practical designs and information. Subscription price, $3 yearly. Address, W. Jennings Demorest, 473 Broadway, New York.

A Problem.
If a bully boy fill his pocket with loose powder and then puts in a handful of matches, what would be the result if he attempted to climb a tree?—Spizans.

He would probably get a tremendous blowing up, or rather blowing down.

One of the West India Islands Submerged and Ten Thousand Persons Drowned.

HAVANA, November 14.—Tortola, one of the British West Indies, has been submerged, and ten thousand persons drowned.

Advices from Porto Rico to the 7th inst. have been received. A terrible hurricane had visited the southern portion of the island, destroying all the crops.

Two hundred lives were lost, and four thousand families are destitute. Provisions were to be landed duty free for two months.

Subscriptions had been opened in Havana for the relief of the sufferers at St. Thomas. The Liverpool steamer which was sunk during the hurricane carried down $5,000,000 in specie and merchandise. The loss of the Steamship Company, at St. Thomas, will amount to $12,000.

Some five hundred bodies remaining unburied have been burnt on the island.

More Land—More Money.
St. John, St. Thomas, and St. Cruz, the three Danish West India Islands, it is asserted, upon what appears to be good authority, have been purchased by the United States for eleven and a half millions of dollars in gold, subject, however, to a prior lien of France upon St. Thomas and St. John, of seven and a half millions, provided the people there vote to be sold to us.

There is no prospect of another trial of John H. Surratt. It may possibly take place, however, in January or February.

—On last Friday night, the bank of Zepher Nick & Lodge, of New Lisbon, was broken into, and about $5,000 in U. S. Bonds taken. The burglars got in through the back window, by breaking the bar of the shutter. They forced open the iron doors of the vault by means of picks and chisels. They did not open the safe, but found a tin box containing $2,500 in worth of bonds and a paper box containing $400. They broke open several boxes and private papers. The tin box contained $3,600 belonging to Mrs. Griffith, and $1,600 belonging to Mr. Beggs. The paper box containing $400 belonged to Thomas White. It is not known whether they took any other valuable property or not.

We have to record still another death from base ball folly. In Allen's Prairie, Michigan, there is a ladies' base ball club. One day last week they played a game. Miss Howard was made ill by over-exertion, and died in three days thereafter.

As a delicious cordial, combined with great tonic virtues, their equal cannot be found.
